Message from Principal

Our graduate students are critical to advancing our research, teaching, and outreach mission, and recruiting, training, and graduating the next generation of researchers, scholars, and writers is key. We are launching a new Graduate Program Enhancement Review process to make them more competitive nationally.

Air Vice Marshal (Retd) Asif Maqsood,HI(M)
Principal PAF College Sargodha

Our Mission

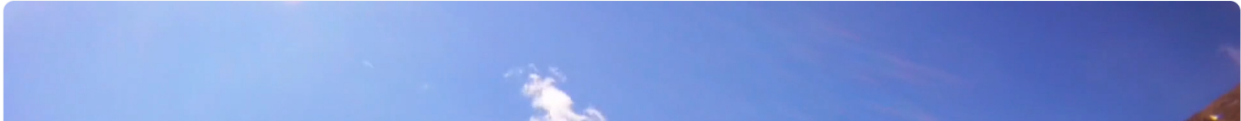

- To develop academic potential in the students with moral and physical grooming reflective of the core values of integrity, duty and excellence.

Role & Task

- PAF College Sargodha is a residential academic institution where the students are under obligation to pursue a career in Pakistan Air Force after completion of their studies.
- The staff at the college, besides providing a multi-dimensional training regime, remains actively involved round the clock with the students to ensure a close monitoring of their whole life sphere.

Objectives of Training

- To bring about the desired academic excellence and to inculcate in a student the capability to think for himself and display improved inter-personal communication skills, cultural awareness and human relations.
- Character development to attain moral attributes of a leader with stress on integrity, loyalty, self-discipline and devotion to duty.
- Physical training in sports fields through competitive sports and adventure based outdoor activities with a view to developing a sense of camaraderie, team spirit and self esteem.
